IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FACT OF FAITH SERIES TO BE PRESENTED AT HOLY FAMILY PARISH

SAN DIEGO, CALIF.--The Fact of Faith Series will begin its new season with three courses to be offered in Holy Family School, Ulric and David Streets, San Diego at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 6.

The series will continue for eight consecutive Tuesdays and present three courses.

Dr. John Swanke, director of the series and associate professor of philosophy at the University of San Diego, will teach a course on the encyclical, "Humanae Vitae."

The Very Reverend Michael Alcaraz, rector of St. Francis Seminary, and professor of religious studies at the University of San Diego, will discuss the liturgy in light of its recent changes.

Father Alcaraz, author of a new liturgical text book, "Love, Sign and Symbol," will present the psychology of liturgy and rite and explain why such an activity is essential to religion.

In view of the changes in the Catholic Church, not only is the liturgy a matter of study; but the Church herself needs to be better understood, Dr. Swanke said.

To enable Catholics as well as non-Catholics to get a richer grasp of the fulness of the Church, Rev. James N. Poulsen, associate pastor of Our Mother of Confidence parish, will discuss the structure of the church in his course of the series, Dr. Swanke added.

Father Poulsen obtained his degree in theology in Rome where he studied under the famed Jesuit, Father Fuchs, at the Gregorianum, Dr. Swanke said.

Series tickets may be purchased at the door on any Tuesday. Special rates are available to husband and wife. The series is being sponsored by Holy Family Parish. Rev. Lloyd Bourgeois is the pastor.
